

14.-15.11.2024 Intercultural Competence

Where?

Magdeburg- Leibniz-Institut für Neurobiologie

Brenneckestraße 6
39118 Magdeburg, Germany

When?

14.-15.11.2024, starts at 9 a.m

Language:

English

Trainer:

Prof. Dr. Maik Arnold

Interkultureller Trainer und Systemischer Coach

▶ <https://www.maik-arnold.de/>

Description:

Intercultural competence does not develop by itself, but is an integral part of a lifelong learning process.

Learning objectives:

After completing the workshop, you will be able to

- ▶ explain basic concepts of intercultural communication and competence,
- ▶ reflect effectively on intercultural experiences in different communicative situations,
- ▶ deal productively with culturally induced communicative misunderstandings and experiences of difference.

Learning content:

The workshop includes the following contents:

- ▶ Interculturality and the experience of cultural difference
- ▶ Cultural self-reflection and self-awareness
- ▶ Cultural dimensions and/or cultural standards as explanatory approaches
- ▶ Consciously dealing with interculturality and cultural differences in everyday university life

Learning methods:

including interactive input, group work, simulation, case analyses of critical interaction situations

Maximum number of participants: 15 people

Registration deadline 07.11.2024

Click here for > registration (<https://www.kgc-sachsen-anhalt.de/home/MeCoSa/Anmeldung.html>)
